BUSINESS LICENSE FOR LANDLORDS.

Councilmember LaBau after reviewing Hyrum City's Rental Unit Disproportionate Impact Municipal Services Study, the committee is recommending the City require all landlords to obtain a commercial business license rather than the City implementing the Good Landlord Program.

By requiring all landlords to obtain a business license: 1) It provides the City with contact information, through licensing, for each rental dwelling to allow problems to be resolved expeditiously; 2) It ensures all rental dwellings are established legally and constructed in compliance with the building code at the time of establishment; and 3) It provides consistency with licensing of all other businesses in Hyrum City by requiring licensing of owners who rent dwellings.

Landlords would be required to obtain a commercial business license for the year 2012. Owners of more than one rental dwelling or unit will be required to obtain only one business license. If there is more than one owner, each owner shall be jointly liable to pay the business license fee and to ensure all contact information is listed on the business license application for each owner. The current commercial business license annual fee is $75.

Utah State Law requires all landlords to comply with the International Property Maintenance Code. The International Property Maintenance Code is a national model code that addresses maintenance requirements for the interior and exterior of structures. It is not meant to replace other City ordinances being enforced by other City departments (e.g. signs, zoning, nuisances, junk cars, on-street parking, outside storage, etc...). The IPMC also contains requirements for plumbing, heating, fire, and electrical systems in existing buildings.

ACTION

Councilmember LaBau made a motion to have City Administrator D. Brent Jensen draft an ordinance requiring landlords to obtain a commercial business license. Councilmember Felix seconded the motion and all five four councilmembers present voted aye.

BUDGET REPORT AND UPDATE ON SALT HOLLOW PARK.

City Administrator D. Brent Jensen briefly reviewed the 2010-2011 General Fund and Utility Funds expenditures and revenues through April 2011.

Gerald Miller updated the City Council on the progress being made at Salt Hollow Park. He has had numerous groups and individuals volunteer to help, such as, church groups, families, youth groups, scouts, and people with experience in building, landscaping, and cement work. He is organizing the volunteers and projects needing to be worked on in order to accomplish the development of the park. He is hoping the City will save $250,000 in labor through volunteer help and private donations.

MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL REPORTS.

Councilmember Felix said he attended the Utah Local Governments Trust Annual meeting.

Councilmember Miller said she is working with Todd Pignatero on the restoration of the cabin. Rod Garner's family owns a barn with old wood and she is hoping he will allow the City to use the wood on the cabin. Harrington and Company has offered to donate wood shingles that it has in its storage yard. The 4th of July posters will be distributed and hung up at various locations through out Hyrum and Logan by the beginning of June.

Mayor Howard updated the City Council on the projects and activities going on with UAMPS. Congress did not pass a bill that would put restrictions on the EPA and take back some of its power. Hopefully, the bill will be brought back before the Council next year.
