- D. Attached garages are considered a part of the main building for purposes of establishing front, side and rear setbacks.
- E. Detached garages may be emplaced at the twenty-five (25) foot front setback line but the combination of house and garage must still meet the side yard setback stipulated in "A" above if the front of the garage is not behind a line established by the back wall of the house.
- F. Detached garages emplaced elsewhere on the lot shall have minimum side and rear setbacks of one (1) foot from the roof edge.
- G. All other accessory buildings (ie sheds, barns, etc.) shall be emplaced at least ten (10) feet to the rear of the main building and have minimum side and rear lot line setbacks of one (1) foot from the roof edge.   - 3. Where both extended roof overhang and support columns exist, the measurement will be made to whichever point (overhang or columns) that yields the greater setback.
- J. Side setback will be measured from the side property line to the nearest point on the side wall of the structure with the following exceptions:
  - 1. If any portion of the structure (except the roof), extends closer to the property line than the side wall, it will become the measurement point (e.g. bay windows, foundations, etc.).

2. When the side roof overhang extends more than two (2) feet beyond the wall. Side setback will be measured from the property line to the roof edge. The required minimum will be reduced by two (2) feet. (Example, a roof overhang extends three feet out from the side wall and a ten (10) foot setback is required on that side. The adjusted setback of eight (8) feet would be measured from the property line to the edge of the roof).
- K. Rear setback will be measured from the rear property line to the rear wall of the structure with the following exceptions:
  1. If a covered patio is attached to the house, the rear wall of the patio will become the measurement point.
- L. Roofs and side lots must be designed as to ensure that snow and water runoff falls within the property on which the structure is located. Side lots must be configured so as to minimize roof runoff flowing to neighboring properties (see figure HCC 17.28.030). (Ord 14.01, 14-09, 15-04)

70. Section 17.60.010 of the Hyrum City Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

17.60.010 Purpose

A planned unit development (PUD) allows some deviations from the Concept Plan and platting requirements of HCC Title 16. These are usually seen as smaller lot sizes and greater density in exchange for open space, attractive building designs, and other amenities such as playgrounds, swimming pools, parks and meeting facilities. No PUD shall have an area of less than two and one half (2½) acres. Maximum density allowed for multi-family developments is 10 units per acre. Assisted living facilities are not included in this maximum density limit. Consideration should be given to disperse large multi-family PUD developments throughout the city instead of concentrating them in one central area.

A PUD is a subdivision and follows the path of HCC Title 16 for all reviews and approvals. In addition to that, there are several added requirements concerning the overall look of the project, both of the buildings and the general layout of the buildings and the amenities. The Planning Commission may recommend, and the City Council may impose, such conditions on a PUD as it may deem appropriate to meet the goals and objectives of this chapter and the City's General Plan. (Ord. 08-13)
